The record-setting 2002-03 campaign, which included numerous team and individual accomplishments, was highlighted by the program's third all-time appearance in the NCAA Final Four.

The Golden Eagles posted an overall record of 27-6 and claimed their first-ever Conference USA regular season championship after compiling a 14-2 league slate. The win total was the second-best in school history and marked the 27th occasion a Marquette squad collected 20-or-more wins in a year.

MU concluded the year ranked No. 9 in the final Associated Press poll following its historic run to the Final Four. After earning the No. 3 seed in the Midwest Region, Marquette opened play with a victory over Holy Cross and followed it up with a win against No. 24 Missouri.

Following a Sweet 16 matchup with No. 4 Pittsburgh, which resulted in a 77-74 win, the Golden Eagles advanced to a show down with top-ranked Kentucky. MU prevailed 83-69 as Dwyane Wade notched just the third triple-double in NCAA tournament history, earning a spot in the Final Four in New Orleans.

Marquette was led by All-America selection and Wooden Award Finalist Dwyane Wade. He was also named Conference USA Player of the Year, the first-ever player at the school to claim the award, and captured C-USA top defensive honors as well. Robert Jackson claimed second team all-league accolades in his lone season with MU and newcomer Steve Navak collected C-USA Sixth Man of the Year honors.

- Marquette averaged 15,553 fans per game, a new school record
- Tom Crean was named C-USA Ray Meyer Coach of the Year
- MU's win over No. 1 Kentucky was the program's first over a top-ranked team
